JAR CHARM / HOW TO USE

Protection Jar Charm

BOUNDARIES / GROUNDING / PEACE

A sealed charm for protection work, steady boundaries and a peaceful space. Let it serve as a small, tangible reminder of what you welcome into your life and what you choose to keep outside it.

INSIDE YOUR CHARM

Black salt, black sand, iron shavings, sage, rosemary, rue, cinnamon, gold flakes, tiger's eye and black obsidian. Sealed with black wax.

BEGIN YOUR RITUAL

01 Set your intention. Hold the closed jar in both hands. Take three slow breaths and name what you want to protect: your home, your peace, your energy or your personal boundaries.

02 Give it a place. Keep it on a secure shelf near your entryway, on an altar or beside your workspace. To carry it with you, cushion the glass in a small protective pouch.

03 Return to it. Before a busy day or after a difficult interaction, hold the jar and repeat your intention. Picture a clear boundary around your space, then choose one action that supports that boundary.

AN INTENTION TO SPEAK

"My space is protected. My boundaries are clear. Peace is welcome here."

CARE & KEEPING

Keep the jar sealed; opening it is not needed for the ritual. Keep it dry and away from heat, children and pets. The wax is a seal, not a candle. Do not burn or ingest the contents. To refresh your ritual, hold the jar and restate your intention.
